Factsheet

What are the categories of Wholesale Client?

Essentially, everyone is a Retail Client unless they satisfy one of the requirements to be classified as a Wholesale Client under section 708(8) or (11), section 761G(5), (6), (6A) or (7) or section 761GA of the Corporations Act 2001.

Wholesale Clients

Wholesale Clients comprise Sophisticated Investors and Professional Investors under the Corporations Act 2001.

Sophisticated Investor

A sophisticated investor is one or more of the following:

- A person or entity that has obtained an accountant's certificate dated no more than two years ago that confirms the client:
 - a. has net assets of at least $2.5 million; or
 - b. had a gross income for each of the last two financial years of at least $250,000. (See the Accountant Certificate in the Client Details Form)
- A person or entity that is controlled by a person or entity that meets the requirements of (a) or (b) above.
- A person or entity who invests where the purchase price of the product is at least $500,000.

Professional Investor

A professional investor is defined as one or more of the following:

- A financial services licensee.
- A body regulated by APRA, other than a trustee of any of the following (within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993):
 - a. a superannuation fund;
 - b. an approved deposit fund;
 - c. a pooled superannuation fund;
 - d. a public sector superannuation scheme.
(This does not include SMSF)

- A body registered under the Financial Corporations Act 1974.
- The trustee of:
 - a. a superannuation fund;
 - b. an approved deposit fund;
 - c. a pooled superannuation trust; or
 - d. a public sector superannuation scheme;
within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 and the fund, trust or scheme has net assets of at least $10 million.
- A person or entity who controls gross assets of at least $10 million (including any amount held by an associate or under a trust that the person manages).
- A listed entity or related body corporate of a listed entity.
- An exempt public authority.
- A body corporate or an unincorporated body that:
 - a. carries on the business of investment in financial products, interests in land or other investments; and
 - b. for those purposes, invests funds received (directly or indirectly) following an offer or invitation to the public, within the meaning of section 82 of the Corporations Act 2001, the terms of which provided for the funds subscribed to be invested for those purposes;
- A foreign entity that, if established or incorporated in Australia, would be covered by one of the preceding paragraphs.

FIIG Securities Limited ('FIIG') provides general financial product advice only. As a result, this document, and any information or advice, has been provided by FIIG without taking account of your objectives, financial situation and needs. FIIG's AFS Licence does not authorise it to give personal advice. Because of this, you should, before acting on any advice from FIIG, consider the appropriateness of the advice, having regard to your objectives, financial situation and needs. If this document, or any advice, relates to the acquisition, or possible acquisition, of a particular financial product, you should obtain a product disclosure statement relating to the product and consider the statement before making any decision about whether to acquire the product. Neither FIIG, nor any of its directors, authorised representatives, employees, or agents, makes any representation or warranty as to the reliability, accuracy, or completeness, of this document or any advice. Nor do they accept any liability or responsibility arising in any way (including negligence) for errors in, or omissions from, this document or advice. FIIG, its staff and related parties earn fees and revenue from dealing in the securities as principal or otherwise and may have an interest in any securities mentioned in this document. Any reference to credit ratings of companies, entities or financial products must only be relied upon by a 'wholesale client' as that term is defined in section 761G of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). FIIG strongly recommends that you seek independent accounting, financial, taxation, and legal advice, tailored to your specific objectives, financial situation or needs, prior to making any investment decision. FIIG does not provide tax advice and is not a registered tax agent or tax (financial) advisor, nor are any of FIIG's staff or authorized representatives. FIIG does not make a market in the securities or products that may be referred to in this document. A copy of FIIG's current Financial Services Guide is available at: www.fiig.com.au/fsg.

An investment in notes or corporate bonds should not be compared to a bank deposit. Notes and corporate bonds have a greater risk of loss of some or all of an investor's capital when compared to bank deposits. Past performance of any product described on any communication from FIIG is not a reliable indication of future performance. Forecasts contained in this document are predictive in character and based on assumptions such as a 2.5% p.a. assumed rate of inflation, foreign exchange rates or forward interest rate curves generally available at the time and no reliance should be placed on the accuracy of any forecast information.
